I would like to be a member of IMGL in order to become ingrained within the legal profession focused on gaming law and gaming law issues. Although new to the gaming industry, I intend on practicing in this industry for the foreseeable and long term future. I feel that membership in IMGL can help me grow my knowledge base through its education offerings and help me advance my personal career as a gaming attorney. As I have with many other organizations, I will not just be a passive member, but an active member looking to take advantage of any opportunity to give back to the organization.
